

Urban Waterbodies – Delivering a Vital Resource

Manageable Surface Water Resources in the Greater Perth Region

Thursday 30th June 2016, 1pm to 5.30pm

Canning River Eco Education Centre

Kent Street Weir, Wilson

Free Event | Limited Space | Plenty of Parking | Sundowner to follow
RSVP <https://www.trybooking.com/LVMR> by Tues 28th June

Urban Waterbodies – Delivering a Vital Resource

An informative half-day symposium for professionals managing public and private waterbodies

Urban Waterbodies – A State of Affairs

SESSION ONE: 1-3pm

Keynote Speaker:

Prof. Anas Ghadouani BSc MSc PhD
CRC for Water Sensitive Cities, UWA

SW Regional Surface Water – A Critical State of Affairs

Dr. Stuart Hellenen – Dalcon Environmental

Algae – What's all the fuss about?

Dr. Mark Castalanelli – EcoDiagnostics

Rapid Detection of Cyanobacteria

Intervention, Mitigation & Human Factors

SESSION TWO: 3-4.30pm

Jarrad Hall – University of Western Australia
Surface Water and Antimicrobial Resistance

Craig Rothleitner – Urban Stormwater Technologies
Stormwater – From Contamination to Reuse

Darren Smith – Oxyjet WA
Blunting the Blooms – Mitigating Cyanobacteria in the Non-marine Environment

More information and RSVP: Darren Smith | 0435 246 838 | darren.smith@oxyjet.net